

IBM Lotus Workplace Web Content Management V1.1 Available Today

IBM Lotus Workplace Web Content Management is a powerful and sophisticated web content management product for content authoring, life cycle management and publishing. A limited use license of the Java™ edition has been included with WebSphere® Portal at no additional cost to simplify and automate management of your WebSphere Portal content immediately. See licensing details for more information.

To download this free feature from your WebSphere Portal license, visit the Passport Advantage® web site.

If you would like to expand your usage to more servers and/or to more web sites, you can simply purchase the full IBM Lotus Workplace Web Content Management license for $49,999 per CPU. By purchasing an unrestricted license, you can manage content for any Internet, intranet or extranet site with either the Java or Domino® edition of IBM Lotus Workplace Web Content Management.

To purchase an unrestricted license, visit the Passport Advantage web site, reference product number D52Y0LL.
